Hoyt's Theatre. At Hoyt's Theatre next Monday evening, April 19th, H. A. Du Souchet's, "The Man From Mexico," an adaptation from the French, will receive its initial performance in New York City. The story of the play tells about the man, whom we all know, who tries to belp his friends out of their troubles but the more he fixes things for them the more trouble he gets them in. The tuations in this new farce are said to be even more ludicrous than in H. A. Du Souchet's "My Friend From India." Smyth & Rice's clever company of comedians will be seen in this comedy among whom are the well known players: Willie Collier, M. A.
